

Real English® 42 was & were: Were you good at school?

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Susan: Yes, I was a very good student.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Cindy: Yes, I was very good at school.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Ian: Yeah, reasonably. Reasonably good, yeah.

Catherine: Yeah, I was. A model student. Model pupil.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Ada: I was an average student.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Loren: Uhm, so-so.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Eloisa: So-so.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Margaret: No.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Lynn: Yes.

Katie. She was. I wasn't.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Colin: Wonderful.

Chris: I wasn't. Hopeless.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Madelaine: Yeah, I think so.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Wayne: I don't think so.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

David: Was I good at the academic side of it, or was I a good boy?

Interviewer: Both.

David: No. I was a bad boy but I was very good at the academic side.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Ann: I was pretty good.

Interviewer: How about you, Regina? Were you good at school, in school?

Regina: Yeah, I was, I was definitely an over-achiever at school.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Randy: I was excellent at school. Excellent student. Unfortunately, it doesn't work the same way in business.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Jim: Yes, I was good at school.

Robin: Yes, he was. He's a really smart guy. He's a lawyer.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Gary: Was I good at school?

June: He still is. He teaches.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Jessica: Yes. Very good.

Interviewer: Woo! Were you good at school?

Tracy: Yeah. Just good. Not very good!